

Alsones BALESTRIN (Brésil), Recteur en charge des affaires académiques et internationales à Universidade do Vale do Rio dos Sinos (UNISINOS) à Porto Alegre

Alsones Balestrin is Professor in the Graduate Program of Management at the School of Management, UNISINOS University (Brazil) and Invited Professor in the Management Institute, Poitiers University (France). He earned his Ph.D. in Management from Federal University (Brazil) and PhD in Information and Communication Science from Poitiers University (France). His research interests are related to cooperative strategy, inter-organizational networks, knowledge creation and collaborative innovation. His work has been published in several English and Portuguese written journals like Journal of Knowledge Management, The Journal of Management and Governance, International Journal of Entrepreneurship and Small Business, International Journal of Management Practice, Journal of Technology Management & Innovation, among others.